CONSENT/RELEASE FORM

Author Photos/Images

The purpose of this consent and release form is to request your permission to publish electronically the enclosed photo(s) as displayed in the article being submitted to the Canadian Journal of Physician Leadership, and to ensure that you understand clearly how CSPE may use those images.

1. The publication may be in any medium, including print and electronic form, including posting on CSPE's website, twitter account, or other CSPE social media channels. You further understand that posting to social media sites means that the website's terms and conditions govern the use and retransmission of the content posted, rather than CSPE's terms and conditions.
2. CSPE has relationships with other entities for the republication, use and distribution of its materials and your permission extends to these other entities for CSPE purposes.
3. You grant permission to CSPE to use your name in conjunction with the image(s).
4. You understand that you cannot revoke your permission once the image(s) have been published in print or electronic forms.

I have read and fully understand the intent and purpose of this release and am signing it without reservation. I have been provided the opportunity to raise and have my questions answered. I am over the age of 19 years.
