AMERICAN ASSOCIATION FOR PHYSICIAN LEADERSHIP

Great mentors focus on the whole person, not just their protégé's careers

Aspiring leaders need more and better mentoring than they're getting today. According to a recent study, more than 75% of professional men and women want to have a mentor, yet only 37% have one. What's more, most mentors are too narrowly focused on career advancement. MORE

CMA sending notice to federal political parties: Health is the ballot box issue in 2019

With mounting evidence that the health care system is failing Canadians, the Canadian Medical Association (CMA) is putting federal political parties on notice: It's time to put health back on the agenda. In its policy platform published today, the CMA is calling for decisive actions to address access to care across the country, seniors care and youth mental health — along with asking parties to commit to implementing pharmacare and making climate change a priority, recognizing its impact on the health of Canadians. HARVARD BUSINESS REVIEW

6 Steps leaders can take to get the most out of feedback

Business publications are filled with articles about feedback: how important it is for leaders, how leaders can both give and receive it, what happens when leaders don't get it, and even what to do if someone is not open to feedback they have been given. The focus tends to be on the transfer of data. What is less explored is how leaders should respond once they receive that data. MORE

MEDPAGE TODAY — KEVIN MD

Have you forgotten the most important health care leadership skill?

Physician burnout is a hot topic right now. Some don't agree with the term and choose to use "moral injury." Regardless of the term you want to use, the problem is real. Christina Maslach describes burnout as "an erosion of the soul caused by a deterioration of one's values, dignity, spirit, and will." ... while we've identified this as a major issue amongst physicians and have highlighted its prevalence and causes, have we really addressed preventing it? STRATEGY + BUSINESS

People are more trustworthy than you think

When leaders routinely default to an attitude of mistrust, they create a negative loop that undermines relationships and hinders change. MORE
